

Stakeholder Engagement Event

Getting It Right in the Black Country

For children and young people up to the age of 25 who have moderate to severe learning disabilities.

We are holding a stakeholder engagement event on Wednesday 15th June, 10am-2.30pm, Via zoom

Who is it for?

Family carers of children and young people up to the age of 25 who have moderate to severe learning disabilities.

Professionals across health, social care and education supporting these individuals and their families.

Third sector organisations supporting these individuals and their families.

Aims

Hear what we've found out so far.

Share your views on existing support and services in the Black Country.

Discuss your ideas and hopes for the future.

Help us improve local services.

To book your place please email Mary: mary@thecbf.org.uk

The Challenging Behaviour Foundation

making a difference to the lives of people with severe learning disabilities

The event will be led by the Challenging Behaviour Foundation